Good afternoon, Counsel –

We are reaching out to all those who have filed motions to allow and compel payment of administrative claims in the above-captioned chapter 11 proceedings with respect to goods and services provided post-petition. As the Debtors previewed at the January 21st omnibus hearing, we have now filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Setting a Bar Date for Filing Proofs of Pre-Closing Administrative Expense Claims Against the Debtors, (II) Establishing Pre-Closing Administrative Expense Claims Procedures, and (III) Granting Related Relief, Including Notice and Filing Procedures [D.I. 1962] (the “Procedures Motion”). Attached to the Procedures Motion as Exhibit B is a schedule of pre-sale closing administrative expense claims, the amounts of which are based on the Debtors’ records. A copy of the Procedures Motion (with exhibits) is attached hereto.

As set forth in the Procedures Motion, the Debtors believe that the most orderly and equitable path to reconciling administrative expense claims in the chapter 11 cases is through the proposed procedures. To that end, the Debtors respectfully request that each of you agree to participate in the procedures and work with us to reconcile any differences rather than the Debtors having to formally file an objection to each and every motion to compel. We would like to represent to the Court at the upcoming February 26th omnibus hearing that the only motion going forward is the Procedures Motion, rather than each individual motion.

If you are amenable to proceeding in this manner, and to the extent your asserted claim differs from that set forth in Exhibit B, we kindly ask that you reach out to the Davis Polk and Morris Nichols team members copied here to (1) confirm that your motion is adjourned pending reconciliation of your claim and (2) indicate your willingness to engage in the claims reconciliation process with the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt, if you are in agreement with the claim amount listed in Exhibit B, no further action is required at this time.

Please let us know of any questions.

Best,
Kevin

Dear Kevin:

Thank you for your email below. I write on behalf of my client, HomeView Design. The admin procedures motion includes a schedule listing HomeView Design's administrative claim in the amount of $85,784. However, based on HomeView Design's records, this amount does not accurately reflect the full value of HomeView Design's post-petition admin claim. A detailed summary and supporting documents of HomeView Design's post-petition pre-closing claim is attached. As you can see, HomeView Design's total unpaid administrative expense claim for the period between September 9, 2024, and January 3, 2025, is $100,490.00.

While we are open to engaging in discussions to reconcile the amount of HomeView Design's claim, we have significant concerns regarding the lack of a definitive timeline for resolving disputed claims under the proposed procedures. The motion does not impose any deadline for the Debtors to object to claims, and the motion does not establish a clear timeframe for resolving claim disputes, leaving creditors uncertain as to when they will be paid. This open-ended approach creates undue delay and presents unnecessary risk for administrative claimants such as HomeView Design, who have provided post-petition goods in reliance on the Debtors' obligations under the Bankruptcy Code.

To avoid the need for a formal objection to the procedures motion, we request a prompt resolution of HomeView Design's claim prior to the February 19, 2025, objection deadline, and an appropriate update to the admin claim schedule. Our goal is to ensure that HomeView Design's claim is properly scheduled at the correct amount and that the timing of payment is not left indefinite. Please let me know when you are available to discuss this matter.

I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter, and I look forward to working towards a consensual resolution.

Very truly yours,

Jenny R. Kasen, Esquire

Dear Kevin:

As a follow up to our call yesterday regarding Home View Designs –

HomeView Designs has a 503(b)(9) claim in the amount of $3,778 for goods received by the Debtors in the 20 day pre-petition period (8/20/24 through 9/9/24 petition date). See attached invoice no. 0048333 with corresponding bill of lading.

HomeView Designs also has an administrative priority claim in the amount of $96,712.00 for goods received by the Debtors and charges incurred in the post-petition pre-closing period (9/9/24 petition date through 1/3/25 closing). See attached invoice nos. 0048412, 0048413, 0048414, DLAX1670131484, DLAX1670131475, and DLAX1670131470 with corresponding proof of delivery.

Also, in the post-petition post-closing period (1/3/25 closing to the present), the Debtors ordered a total of $554,109.28 of additional goods. See attached order nos. 95558537, 95558538, 95558539, 95643797, 95678063, 95696535, 95696536, 95696537, 95610243. HomeView Designs has worked to fulfil these orders, and have incurred significant costs in connection therewith. The ordered goods are presently located in China, in a factory warehouse ready to be shipped. HomeView Designs has previously requested, but has not yet received any written confirmation to move forward with shipment, and confirmation that the Debtors will indeed pay for these goods immediately and in accordance with the terms agreed upon – Net 30 days.

Based on the foregoing, I'd like to know when HomeView's 503(b)(9) claim will be paid.

Also, I'd like confirmation that the schedule attached to the debtors' administrative claims procedures motion will be revised to accurately reflect that HomeView is owed $96,712 for the goods received by the Debtors and charges incurred in the post-petition pre-closing period (9/9/24 petition date through 1/3/25 closing).

Finally, I'd like written confirmation to move forward with shipment of the $554,109.28 of goods ordered post-closing, and confirmation that the Debtors will indeed pay for these goods immediately and in accordance with the terms agreed upon – Net 30 days.

Thanks in advance for your prompt response to these requests.

Very truly yours,
